

National Veterinary Services Limited
NATIONAL VETERINARY SERVICES LIMITED
JOB DESCRIPTION

Job Title: Clinical Pathologist	Reports to: Head of Clinical Pathology
Department: Pathology	Business unit: NWL
Prepared by: Laboratories Director	Date: 2021

Main purpose of the role

The Clinical Pathologist is responsible for interpretation and reporting of results from veterinary samples processed at our laboratories in the UK. To provide expert veterinary clinical pathology services to our clients.

Key Responsibilities

Core role accountabilities: Describe the principal tasks and responsibilities

1. Review of clinical findings and laboratory results of samples, to produce interpretive reports for submitting veterinary practices.
2. Evaluate cytology samples to produce descriptive and interpretive reports for submitting veterinary practices
3. Fulfil statutory RCVS requirements regarding to maintenance of professional competency – including CPD, current advances and industry concepts
4. Participate in team activity /meetings / events
5. Participate in production of materials for presentations/newsletters/literature to further promote the business
6. To attend congresses for CPD or to promote the business
7. Work with submitting practice team to ensure suitability of samples and diagnostic tests requested
8. Liaise with technical staff regarding diagnostic tests – existing and new to ensure they meet client requirements and professional standards
9. Participate in staff training and development
10. Deliver high levels of customer service through telephone and face to face interactions
11. Maintain knowledge of LIMS system and IT processes
12. Ensure safe working practices adopted and followed

Personal attributes: Qualifications, experience, skills, knowledge and competencies required to fulfil the role

Qualifications –
 Veterinary Degree and MRCVS
 UK, European or American Board qualifications
 Post graduate qualifications in Veterinary Clinical Pathology FRCpath or equivalent
 Demonstrable pathology experience

Office skills –
 Keyboard, excel, word, telephone, fax and email.
 Good organisational skills,
 Excellent interpersonal skills
 Clear, concise, communication skills
 Customer focussed
 Supportive and directive team member
 Honest, trustworthy, positive attitude
 Respectful of others
 Responsive to change